Special Edition: 40 Years of Sunshine Foundation

Sunshine Reporter: Our History

1976 Bobby’s Dream became the first Dream ever answered in the United States.

“They offered to send the entire family to the Poconos for a weekend. Bobby loved the snow....”
- Linda, Bobby’s Mom. See more of Bobby’s story on sunshinefoundation.org/bobby 1981 The First Dreamlift chartered the first of 105 airplanes, of children with special needs to the Magic Kingdom for one magical day. Sunshine Foundation has sponsored 95 Dreamlifts.

1982 Reader’s Digest published “The Cop Who Spread Sunshine”

1981 Sunshine Foundation continues spreading sunshine into the lives of special needs children, like Jordyn, 12, cerebral palsy. Jordyn received a dream trip to Ohio so her family could get, train and bring home a service dog for Jordyn.

“We had an amazing time! Stabler is a perfect fit for Jordyn and the family!”
- Jordyn’s mom

1990 The Dream Village opens with 7 cottages, like the 7 dwarfs, all with a different theme, a heated pool and playground. Everything is handicap accessible to be a home away from home.

1990 The First of 27 Annual Progeria Reunions was held to bring together children from all around the world with Progeria.

“The Sunshine Foundation has helped me and so many other Progeria kids feel special.”
- Courtney, attended Progeria Reunions. See more of Courtney’s story at sunshinefoundation.org

2016 Sunshine Foundation has helped me and so many other Progeria kids feel special.

“We had an amazing time! Stabler is a perfect fit for Jordyn and the family!”
- Jordyn’s mom
Hammonton Wishing Well Chapter
The All Volunteer Hammonton Wishing Well Chapter celebrated the 40th Anniversary through their annual Bingo Dinner to help raise funds for Robert, 17 with quadriplegic spastic cerebral palsy.

Southern Ocean Chapter
One of the ways the All Volunteer Southern Ocean Chapter of Sunshine Foundation has helped make Dreams come true is through their Annual Fishing Tournaments. Through the 19th Annual Tournament, they helped answer the dream of six year old Peyton with congenital heart disease, who wants to see Star Wars on her Dream Trip!

Mercer County Chapter
The All Volunteer Mercer County Chapter is mostly known for Operation Dreamlift. Their volunteers hold their Annual Fastpitch tournament to answer the dream of a local child. The 12u and 14u softball teams helped make 7 year old Kianna’s Dream Come True!

Cape Atlantic Chapter
Cape Atlantic Chapter is one of the Original chapters. This year, they answered the Dreams of Destiny and Jeremy at their 21st Annual Sunshine Golf Classic. Thank you to Dino’s Charity for Children for helping answer Destiny’s Dream and to the Golfers for answering Jeremy’s Dream!

Joan Jake Miller Memorial Chapter
The All Volunteer Joan Jake Miller Memorial Chapter remembers their dear friend Jake through their name. They continue to Spread Sunshine through their Bike a Thon which helped answer the dream of local child Michael. Michael has cerebral palsy and will be going to the Central Florida Theme Parks!
Central Florida Chapter
The All Volunteer Central Florida Chapter held their Miss Sunshine Foundation Charity Pageant, where the winners spend the year bringing awareness to Sunshine Foundation.

The Dreams

Destiny’s Dream Horse
Destiny, 14 with Caudal regression syndrome loves horses which is why she dreamed of receiving her very own horse!

Addie’s Lemonade Stand
Princess Addie received her Dream Come True Trip in 2013 and has held a Lemonade stand and Bake Sale every year to help answer more dreams. “The summer before we left Addie said ‘I want ALL of the kids dreams to come true!’” - Marisa, Addie’s Mom. Find out more about Addie’s story here: sunshinefoundation.org/addie

Space Coast Chapter
The All Volunteer Space Coast Chapter received a grant from the W.H.O. Foundation for helping make dreams come true! Thank you to BeautiControl and the All Volunteer Space Coast Chapter Volunteers!

Leah’s Dream Trip
Come True Trip, Leah met Clark, a therapy dog from Be an Angel Therapy Dogs Ministry and was able to visit LEGOLAND, FL. Leah’s Dream was answered by 84 Lumber Company.

Anton’s Ramp
Anton, 13 with an anoxic brain injury, received his Dream Come True wheelchair ramp to make it easier to get into his house!

Luke meets Vader!
Luke with cerebral palsy went on his Dream Trip is 2015. There he met Darth Vader and told him ‘You are not my father!’
Charlotte-Rose’s Vacation
Charlotte-Rose, 5 with low functioning autism received a family trip to Lake Tahoe. “We have never done anything like this before. It was nice doing something together as a family having a new experience.” - Charlotte-Rose’s Mom

Wawa answer’s Siobhan’s Dream
Siobhan, 11 with panypopituitarism, dreamed of visiting Walt Disney World and Universal Orlando Resort. Thank you Wawa for making her Dream Come True! “It gave us a chance to focus on the fun instead of the medical needs.” - Andrea, Siobhan’s mom

Emily’s Dream Deck!
Emily, with cerebral palsy, received a dream deck in 2009 at the age of 14. Today she still loves sitting outside on her deck! “I am grateful everytime we sit on it because Emily loves being outdoors so much and this makes it so much easier.” - Emily’s mom

Joshua’s Dream, 2 years later.
Joshua, with low functioning autism and apraxia, received his Dream Come True Trip in August of 2014. “The dream came just in time as Joshua’s father has passed away suddenly in April that year. It was a blessing to get away from everything and see Joshua happy again!” - Joshua’s mom

Addisann’s Horse and Buggie
Addisann, 8 with type 1 diabetes, received a Dream Come True Trip to Lancaster, PA. “She has decided she wants to get her own horse and buggy! She (as well as us) enjoyed the trip to Lancaster. It was absolutely gorous and was so nice to get away!” - Sarabeth, Addisann’s mom.

Zhimire’s Dream Come True!
Zhimire, 4 with quadriplegic cerebral palsy received his Dream Come True thanks to the Smith’s Family Tricky Tray Event. “Watching how much fun Zhimire had at the musical was such an eye opener on how Zhimire can at times enjoy his surroundings without seeing his environment.” —Zhimire’s mom

Noah’s Lego-filled Dream!

Noah, 6 with low functioning autism, loved playing with the legos in his LEGOLAND cottage! “Noah has said words we never heard him say!” - Annette Noah’s mom

Dream Village Volunteers Brighten Up the Place!

Thank you to the volunteers who come out to the Sunshine Foundation Dream Village. Thanks to all their hard work, the Dream Village remains as relaxing for the Dreamers today as it was for the first dreamers in 1990! Thank you to our friends at Community Associations Institute, Publix at Berry Town Center, Wyndham Bonnet Creek Resort, Orlando Outdoors Landscape Nursery, BrightView Landscape Servicers and Davenport School of the Arts. These wonderful volunteers came to brighten up the Dream Village grounds by doing everything from pulling weeds to power washing the cottages!
